Adopt A New Paving Plan For Canyon

Injunction Threatened When Council Denies Holly Trail Protest

Disregarding a threat by D. F. J. Willet that he would appeal to the courts for an injunction to prevent carrying through of the project, the City Council last night passed an amended and somewhat modified ordinance of intention to proceed with the paving of approximately two miles of roads and trails in Sierra Madre Canyon.

Less than half a dozen canyon property owners appeared at the Council chamber to enter objections to the improvement program, but Mr. Willet said he spoke for owners of 88.5 per cent of the property fronting on Holly Trail and that he and they vigorously protested against the paving of any part of that thoroughfare and would fight to the last ditch to prevent it.

In its present form the ordinance of intention calls for a six-foot path instead of a 10-foot road on Holly Trail, as was originally planned.

But Mr. Willet says any sort of paving will ruin the natural, rustic beauty of the trail and of the canyon generally, require the removal of some stately trees, kill others and is generally objectionable to owners of 95 per cent of the property along the trail and to a very large majority of all the lot owners in the canyon.

A majority protest signed by owners of property in Brookside Lane and presented at a previous meeting caused the Council to (Continued on Page Two)

Two North Dakota Families Follow Their Pastor Here

Two Trail County, North Dakota families have established residences in Sierra Madre and are again members of the congregation of Rev. William Duncan Ogg.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAndrew and family arrived from Trail county last week. David Anderson and family motored out of Trail county on the same day the McAndrews left, taking the journey a little more leisurely and arriving here on Monday.

They were members of Mr. Ogg's North Dakota flock 26 years ago when he had two charges, one in South Dakota and the other right across the State line in North Dakota.

POEHLERS BUY RANCH; MOVE TO CHULA VISTA

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Poehler and son Dave moved on Wednesday from their Manzanita avenue home to Chula Vista where they have purchased a ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Poehler came to Sierra Madre four years ago from Minneapolis, Minn., where Mr. Poehler was connected with the Grain Exchange. Mr. Poehler was the former proprietor of the Sierra Madre Feed and Fuel Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Poehler will be near their daughter, Mrs. C. B. Hutchins, who resides in Coronado. Mrs. Hutchins' husband is Lieutenant C. B. Hutchins of the United States Navy who is stationed at San Diego.

FRANK LOVELL NAMED TO CHEVROLET DEALER

The many friends of Frank Lovell, former mechanical superintendent at the estate of Dr. W. Jarvis Barlow, will be glad to know that he has been appointed Sierra Madre representative of the Chevrolet agency of MacDonald & O'Boyle of Monrovia.

Mr. Lovell announces that the new 1931 Chevrolet models which will be seen for the first time at a pre-auto show display in Los Angeles today, will be displayed here next week.

Serious Demands Face Red Cross Says Chairman

The following telegram signed by John Barton Payne, National Chairman of the American Red Cross, was received yesterday by officers of the local chapter:

"In the present Roll Call the Red Cross faces serious and exceptional demands that call for the earnest devotion, courage and persistent effort of all Red Cross men and women. We must measure up to the demand and make the Roll Call a great success."

SHOWER ENDS SUMMER'S TRY AT A COMEBACK

Following the third and heaviest shower of the season yesterday when .40 of an inch of rain fell here Colonel H. B. Hersey at the U. S. Weather observatory in Sierra Madre predicted a week of unsettled weather with the probability of more rain.

Cooler weather preceded the rain which probably ended the return of summer that Southern California has experienced during the last few weeks, though Col. Hersey says there will likely be a rise in temperature late tomorrow and Sunday. It may clear up somewhat on Sunday, too, he thinks.

Though clouds hovered about the mountains much of yesterday, the sun shone brightly and the sky was a deep blue an hour after the heaviest part of the latest shower.

Record For Crop Yield Is Smashed

Citrus Shipments Mean $135,000,000 To California Growers This Year

Making a new record for California citrus returns, over $135,000,000 was returned to California during the past season for a citrus crop 32 per cent smaller than the one of the previous year, according to the annual report issued yesterday by E. G. Dezell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

The report disclosed that returns for the past season's shipments of 59,656 cars of citrus fruit were more than $16,000,000 in excess of the previous year when 88,363 cars were shipped, and $8,000,000 more than for any previous season. California citrus shipments for the year totaled 44,619 cars of oranges, 13,229 cars of lemons and 1,808 cars of grapefruit.

The combined American supply of oranges and grapefruit from California, Florida and other producing sections aggregated approximately 96,558 cars last season, compared with 133,667 the previous year, 88,777 in 1928, 104,034 in 1927 and 90,819 in 1926. This, lighter supply combined with the sustained demand built up by the large crop of 1929, was an important factor in bringing record returns to California.

Over 77 per cent of the California citrus crop was marketed through the California Fruit Growers Exchange during the year, with shipments through the California citrus cooperative of 32,916 cars of oranges, 12,149 cars of lemons and 1,312 cars of grapefruit. The delivered value of Exchange shipments in United States markets equaled $130,000,000 of which $25,000,000 was paid to railroads for transportation charges.

"The outstanding record made by California citrus during the season just closed is even more remarkable when general business conditions and lower buying power throughout the country are considered," stated Mr. Dezell in his report. "A few years ago the past season's crop would have been returned to California citrus growers relatively small returns compared with those of the past season. Proper distribution of the crop through cooperation between producers, 23 years of the Sunkist advertising to educate the American public to the health values of California citrus fruits and standardized practices in grading and packing the fruit have been the three most important factors in placing the California citrus industry in the favorable position among other agricultural producers that it holds today."

"With the large crop in prospect for 1930-31 these three fundamentals are even more important," continued the Sunkist executive. "Orderly distribution to the trade in all available markets will be even more important and this can be only obtained with even closer cooperation within the industry itself."

During 1929-30 approximately $1,300,000 was invested by the Exchange in advertising California citrus fruits, making a total expenditure of over $13,000,000 by Sunkist in 23 years of national advertising to increase the national demand for citrus fruit. Of the total amount approximately 55 per cent has been expended during the past six years.

Three primary media—magazines, newspapers and street cards—were employed last year by Sunkist to reach the various classes making up the nation's population. Newspapers and magazines alone carried over 398 million individual Sunkist advertisements.

City School Budget Gets County's OK

Operating Expenses For New Plant Are Approved By 970 The Supervisors

Publication by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors of the 1930-31 school budget for the Sierra Madre school district brings to light the interesting fact that despite the additional expense of operating the new school, the increase in the entire budget over last year is only $3,459. A large percentage of the increase goes to the salary of one new teacher and a full time salary for the school nurse.

Some increases are made necessary through additional pupils being sent to the Pasadena schools, additional furniture and equipment for the school auditorium, new furniture for the school cafeteria and other items of like purpose.

While the actual cost of operating the new school building has been estimated as only slightly in excess of that necessary on the old building, a margin of safety has been taken into consideration to insure proper administration of the new building during the first year.

Although the present budget has been recommended and allowed by the county supervisors, it is said to be improbable that the actual operation of the school system will consume the entire fund. The school board this year closed the term with a balance on hand from the last budget as it did not draw upon its special building fund which legally may be used for the purchase of necessary furniture, apparatus, etc.

Bids have been asked for landscaping of the school grounds from plans donated by a landscape gardener. These plans call for a very beautiful approach to the school and are designed for economy of maintenance.

Work on the new school building is being rushed as rapidly as possible though it is as yet impossible to fix a date upon which the structure will be formally taken off the contractor's hands.

Junior Red Cross Sends Christmas Boxes To Japan

The Sierra Madre Junior Red Cross is shipping this week to the children of the province of Kyoto, Japan, 30 boxes of toys from the children of this community.

This is the second year that the children of Sierra Madre and those of the Land of the Cherry Blossom have exchanged gifts and the exchange is only one of the many similar movements throughout the nation destined to promote good fellowship between the two nations.

The Sierra Madre Junior Red Cross is composed of school children of both the public and parochial schools and is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

Work on a project to send the Japanese children portfolios showing native California birds, plants, trees and flowers, is well under way and it is expected that the Nipponese youngsters will send here many attractive gifts of a like nature this year.

PASADENA SINGER WINS IN STATE-WIDE CONTEST

Coombs, of Long Beach, Number 20, won the State Audition of the Fourth National Atwater Kent Audition over radio station KHJ, is the announcement of auction chairman Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe.

When these four new directors are elected, the eight members of the board will elect from their number a president and secretary who will serve for the coming year.

Simple Ceremony Marks Celebration Of Armistice Day

A squad from American Legion Post 297 lined up behind the colors under the pepper trees at Kersting Court and Baldwin avenue shortly before 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning. The 10 veterans standing with Commander Vincent Fleming and past Commander Roy Pickett faced the West. As the clock began to strike the hour of 11, two Boy Scouts, Graham Patterson and Herbert Grammel, of Troop No. 1, raised their bugles and sounded "taps."

The war veterans stood at attention as did many pedestrians who halted on the streets as the bugles sounded. Automobiles stopped abruptly in the middle of the street at the sound of the first notes. There was a full minute of inactivity and complete silence except for the music.

It was Sierra Madre's formal observance of Armistice Day. Every business house in the city was tightly closed.

A "Mulligan dinner" was served to members of the Legion, their families and friends in the Legion club rooms in the early evening and later in the same place Rudolph Hartman showed some official combat pictures taken in France by the U.S. Signal corps during the height of the Allied offensive that brought about the armistice.

The second quarterly meeting of the California Avocado Association will be held at the Masonic Hall in La Habra, California, on Saturday, November 22. All persons interested in the industry or the California Avocado Association will be welcome to attend.

Womans Club Stages Fine Performances

"Pomeroy's Past" wins Sincere Appreciation Of Two Big Audiences

The Drama Section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, presented a very creditable performance of Claire Kummer's celebrated three act comedy "Pomeroy's Past," on the stage of the woman's clubhouse last Friday and Saturday nights, marking the first of a series of dramatic offerings, which hold hope for a decidedly brilliant season for local players during the winter months.

Capacity houses greeted the performers at both presentations and the audiences were most enthusiastic in their praise of play, Players and Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, the director.

R. M. Finlayson demonstrated to drama lovers of the community that he is an actor of ability and his outstanding performance of "Pomeroy" undoubtedly stamps him as a light comedian of rare versatility.

Mrs. R. O. Picard, in the feminine lead, showed marked ability in a difficult role. Her handling of many delicate comedy situations displayed a stage presence that registered, and remarkable poise at all times.

Marie Jenkins, Viola Fennel, Emil Sturmthal, Lester Bodine, Robert Tarr and Baby Adwell, all did well as the supporting cast and materially aided in the general success of the play.

At the close of the first act on Saturday night, Mrs. Steinberger as director, was called on for a curtain talk after which she was presented with a bouquet of flowers from her many admirers.

Following the Saturday performance, the cast was entertained at a supper dance by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Miss Virginia Jones, Mrs. Edward E. Bacon and Mrs. R. O. Picard.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE HEARS CADMAN AND HIS OPERA SHANEWIS

Artistic in production, finished in setting and presentation, and scholarly in analysis, Shanewis, by Charles Wakefield Cadman, was the outstanding production of the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club since its organization more than a year ago.

The Monrovia Woman's club, where the opera reading was given last Saturday morning, was filled to capacity by an enthusiastic audience, and many new members were added to the enrollment of the club.

Characters of early American history, faithfully portrayed by prominent citizens of Monrovia and other nearby cities, participated in the production, making a colorful background for this truly American opera.

During the intermission between the first and second acts, Mr. Cadman, who was a guest of honor at the presentation, at the request of Mr. Evans, graciously addressed the audience, telling the history of Shanewis and of its presentation at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. He spoke in a charmingly intimate manner to his audience and received a tremendous ovation.

Bring Sierra Madre Villa Into Closer Contact With City

Consumers of gas in Sierra Madre Villa hereafter will be supplied from the Sierra Madre mains and will pay their bills and transact their business through the Sierra Madre office of the Southern Counties Gas Company, the local Chamber of Commerce and city official have been advised.

Engineers of the company are now preparing plans for extension of the company's lines from Sierra Madre through the Hastings ranch into the Villa and local tradespeople are pleased with the prospect of additional business that will be brought here through the regular trips residents of that community will make to the city.

City Unites To Complete Local Quota

Citizens Respond Generously To Initial Appeal In Red Cross Drive

Sierra Madre responded generously during the opening days of the annual Red Cross roll call and drive and it looks as though the city will go "over the top" and reach its quota of 750 members before November 27th, the end of the scheduled campaign.

Word received from Washington indicated the general disaster fund has been absolutely depleted by the demands made upon it during the drought and disasters of the past year.

Officials have made it very clear that every member that can possibly be enrolled throughout the nation this year will be necessary to build up this general fund to cope with any sudden emergency which may arise.

The extreme dry condition of the national forests present another very real danger which at any time may call for additional demands on state and national Red Cross funds and as 50 cents out of every dollar secured through the drive goes to the national chapter, it is very easy to understand the necessity of all communities securing every member possible in order that local chapters may have money to meet emergencies.

The display of the local chapter in the windows of the Community Center building on West Central avenue, is continuing to attract considerable attention. The Japanese toys sent to the children of Sierra Madre, the first aid kits, and other exhibits, giving definite evidence of the accomplishments of those having the work in hand have proved interesting to the public.

Various organizations in the city which have been striving to turn in their subscription blanks on a 100% basis are reporting that they are well on the road to success and Chairman W. R. Humphries of the local organization is now practically sure that the people of the community will let nothing stand in the way of the attainment of the quota.

Good Forest Roads Would Save Great Losses From Fires

Stressing the need of better roads through the California forest to permit motorized fire-fighting apparatus to penetrate into fire zones with more speed than is possible under present circumstances, Chief Fire Dispatcher M. A. Davis of the Angeles National Forest, warned local Kiwanis Club members at their Wednesday meeting that fire hazards at the present time in all forests were very real.

Mr. Davis is of the opinion that if better roads through the forests were constructed, huge forces of fire-fighters and fire-fighting materials could be rushed to fire zones so quickly that much of the present loss could be avoided.

In the absence of Austin H. Gibbs who was to have been the chairman of the day, C. B. Klunk presented the speaker, W. T. Lawless acted as song leader and W. R. Lasater, Fred Cox and Charles Feeder were the invited guests.

C. B. Klunk, William J. Lawless, W. E. Pratt, Frank Hildebrandt and Gordon Brooks motored to Oakland on Wednesday to represent the local club at the state Kiwanis Convention in that city.

Robberies Cease With Two Arrests

Church, Store And Dwelling Visited By Thieves Operating In The Valley

In the arrest by El Morof police at a Monrovia hotel to Tuesday of Herbert Brockhaus, 22, of Los Angeles and Jim Conrad, 20, of Pasadena, Chief of Police Gordon McMillan believes the solution of a chain of robberies which occurred in Sierra Madre last week.

The first robbery perpetrated in this community since that of Miss Thomasella Graham's "Tia Mia" on March 19, occurred at the home of C. A. Davis at 685 West Grand View, where thieves forced out a bar of the grill in the front door and, unfastened the main door by turning the key in the lock.

This method of entrance apparently had been used by the same persons in other robberies in the county and it was one of the circumstances that led to the arrest of Brockhaus and Conrad. According to county officers at the time, they have been questioning the youths, they are alleged to have admitted the robbery of the Davis home.

So far, however, they have not admitted the robbery of the Sierra Madre Drug Company's store on Central avenue, which was entered late last Friday night. Saturday morning by persons who used a skeleton key to force the key from the inside of the back door. Once inside the store the robbers rifled the till of $95 and escaped without leaving any clue.

Call Another Jury For Second Trial Of Charles Askew

Charles E. Askew will be called to trial again before Judge W. F. Lasater in the City Court at 1 o'clock this afternoon on a charge of violating the zoning ordinance by the conduct of a mercantile business at his home, 123 South Lima street.

A mixed jury of eight men and women failed to agree upon a verdict on the occasion of the first trial on October 30. Askew has demanded that he be tried again by jury and a panel has been summoned. All the women on the first jury voted for acquittal.

THREE CONTRACTORS WANT THE MONTECITO AVENUE PAVING JOB

The State Railroad Commission will hold a hearing in the City Hall here on Wednesday, November 26 on the application of the Sierra Madre Telephone Company for permission to revise its rate for advertising in its local directory. Notice of the meeting was given the City Council on Wednesday.

The Council received bids for the paving of Montecito avenue from Lima street to the western city line from Edward Johnson & Sons, and Jack W. Bingham, of Los Angeles, and the Hall-Johnson Company, of Alhambra. The bids were referred to City Engineer Early J. Lynde for tabulation and the contract will be awarded when the lowest responsible bidder has been determined.

The Council approved warrant calling for the expenditure of $10,000.02 and unanimously vote an appropriation of $25 toward the fund being created by the American Red Cross.

Petitions for the recall of Mayor Walshe and two other Arcadia councilmen have been signed by many more than the requisite number of citizens to authorize a special election. Though the petitions set forth "inefficiency" as a reason for the recall, no effort is made to conceal the fact that the movement grew out of the recent summary dismissal of Chief Coberly, of the police and fire departments.

SEE BETTER LIGHTING FOR "LITTLE ART GALLERY"

A better lighting arrangement that will add considerably to the effectiveness of pictures hung in Sierra Madre's "Little Art Gallery" is in prospect. A request for better lighting from Mrs. Fred Griebenow, chairman of the Art section of the Woman's Club which sponsors the art exhibits struck a responsive chord in the Council at Wednesday's meeting. The application was referred to the building committee and followed its meeting the Council discussed plans for altering the lighting system.

ALONG THE FOOTHILLS

Widened and improved from the western boundary of Claremont to the county line, Foothill boulevard has been opened to traffic.

As a part of the city's re-nutrition program Upland has dispensed with the services of its health officer and the city nurse.

District Attorney Buron Fitts has bought the 9-acre Glenn ranch at Duarte and is remodeling the house preparatory to its occupancy as a winter and country residence.

A total of 1239 cars of citrus fruit shipped out of the Covina district this season brought the growers $3,050,000—the biggest financial return but by no means the largest crop, in many years.

The last of Puente's walnuts will be delivered to the packing house tomorrow. They have been going in at the rate of from one to three tons a day and the crop will amount to about 1800 tons—about half of last year's harvest.

Merchants on four of Monrovia's principal business thoroughfares have voted 100 per cent to share the expense of lining the streets with live lighted cedars for six weeks beginning at Thanksgiving.

Charles E. Harwood, Upland's 100-year old citrus grower and philanthropist, presided at a meeting of the district association of lemon growers. He has been president of the organization since its formation in 1892 and has presided at 36 annual meetings.

Ontario's council is studying a tree planting survey and map submitted by its planning commission and calling for the planting of hundreds of trees. Cocos plumosa palms have been recommended for the most important streets of the business and residential districts.

Firing its fire chiefs is the latest pastime of the Councils in San Gabriel Valley cities. Following the lead of Arcadia which dismissed its fire and police chief, San Gabriel has removed Glenn R. Stokes as the head of its fire department. No reason was assigned.

The American Legion and Boy Scouts in many cities of the San Gabriel Valley and the citrus belt stationed buglers at the polling places on Election day to summon voters to the polls. The sugges-

Boil one cup of rice. Slice one large onion and four slices of bacon. Fry together until brown.

Take one can of tomatoes, heat and add to cooked rice. Stir in onion and bacon and add green pepper if desired; salt, and Cayenne pepper to taste.

Serve with dill pickle and lettuce.

IT'S IMPORTANT THAT DECIDUOUS TREES BE IRRIGATED JUST NOW

The irrigation of walnut and deciduous fruit trees this season of the year is essential since there has been practically no rainfall, according to M. H. Kimball, Assistant Farm Advisor.

The past two months have been warm and dry, with less than an inch of rainfall in any part of the country. Such a condition is not safe for trees and will not result in their best condition. It is better to irrigate now with a light to medium irrigation, thus giving the trees sufficient water to carry them until the leaves drop normally.

Water applied at this season is valuable not only from the standpoint of the trees' immediate use of it, but from its value in collecting and making efficient small rains which would otherwise fall on totally dry soil and evaporate.

ANOTHER HURDLE THE CRIMINAL MUST TAKE

Research experiments are being made by the California Highway Patrol to determine the possibility of establishing radio telephonic connection between highway patrolmen working on their beats and their district and central offices.

A special type of radio telephone light enough to be carried on a motorcycle but powerful enough to have a range of several hundred miles is being considered. If successful this will enable the district inspector or squad captain to get in immediate communication with his men in case of crime, accident, or any other reason necessitating a quick move of officers from one place to another.

PAVING PROTEST

modify the plans affecting that path and apparently to satisfy the objectors. Much of the paving on Brookside was eliminated, leaving only short stretches at either end of the ten-foot lane to be surfaced.

Another protest hearing has been fixed for Wednesday, December 3, at 7:30 p.m., when property holders not satisfied with the present program may be heard in person or by petition.

Mr. Willet has appeared at all three protest meetings scheduled by the Council in connection with the proposed canyon paving. He protested originally against the condemnation of any part of his property in Holly Trail for a roadway and entered a general objection to paving of the trail under any circumstances. He has maintained that paving will spoil the natural simplicity of "one of the most beautiful spots in the world."

Laura E. Cadmus appeared as an objector to the Holly Trail feature of the paving program last night. She said the Los Angeles Audubon Society held its annual meetings and bird walks in the canyon. Other organizations were attracted to the canyon by its rustic beauty, she said, and paving would remove the effect that people seeking natural beauty came to Sierra Madre to find.

When no other objectors appeared the four Councilmen present voted to overrule the protests. The ordinance of intention was then amended to eliminate paving on parts of Brookside Lane and reducing the width of the paving in Holly Trail. In this form the resolution was adopted.

After the Council had adjourned Mr. Willet announced that though his objections so far had been to the paving of Holly Trail, he would proceed in the courts against the whole canyon project, setting forth that the assessments proposed are inequitable, that it is illegal to exempt the city from the payment of assessments against canyon property owned by it, that there is a manifest inequality and injustice in the proposal to pave what is known as the "Corum road" at the expense of other canyon property holders and that a part of the paving program is against the wishes of a large majority of the people.

Mayor Al. S. Myers who has been suffering with sciatic rheumatism, was unable to attend last night's meeting.

Mrs. Mary Gay has returned to the Sierra Madre Hotel to spend the winter.

Woman's Club Notes

By MRS. WAVERLY E. PRATT Press Chairman, Woman's Club

THE regular luncheon and club meeting was held Wednesday at 12:30 and was presided over by Mrs. E. E. Bacon, president. Mrs. Fred Griebenow, as Art chairman, had charge of the program and presented Mrs. Claire Cronenwett who talked on "Why America is Looking to Southern California for Art."

Mrs. Cronenwett made the interesting statement during her talk, that the high schools of Los Angeles and Pasadena lead all other high schools in America in their art studies.

Mrs. Nell Brooker Mayhew, past art chairman of the Los Angeles District, and a well known artist, gave an interesting talk on "Modern Art." Mrs. Mayhew said, "A picture is a message from one soul to another." She said that the artist of today is trying to depict the ideas of today and are not contented with just painting nature.

W. R. Humphries told about the Red Cross work and of the urgent need of cooperation of everyone to support this worthy cause as this year there are more serious and exceptional demands upon the Red Cross. Last year, he said, 2500 quarts of milk were given by the needy of Sierra Madre besides giving aid to soldiers and dependents.

Mrs. James Dewey, wife of the well known Sierra Madre artist, was guest for the day and also Mrs. William Murry who is a painter and sculptor.

After a short business meeting in the auditorium, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Mrs. Homer Glidden gave an impressive ceremony in honor of Armistice Day.

Mrs. Fred Griebenow had charge of the afternoon program, and was extended a rising vote of thanks for her untiring and successful efforts to bring to Sierra Madre the highest in Art to be exhibited at the "Little Art Gallery."

Harold Swartz, a teacher of Sculpture at the Otis Art Institute, and who has won for himself a high place among the sculptors of America, was presented by Mrs. Griebenow, and gave a most interesting lecture on "Sculpture." He gave a comprehensive history, from the beginning down to the present, of sculpture. He took us through the five great periods of sculpture—first the Buddhist period. The sculpture of this period was inspired and created for religious purposes and the Buddhist were masters of design.

Then came the Egyptian period—the people of this period were mainly interested in after-life so the sculpture at this time was entirely concerned with after-life.

The Grecian period, Mr. Swartz said, was the turning point in the world's history of sculpture for it changed from the religious to the secular influence. At this time the sculpture was idealistic and they no longer used symbols.

During the Gothic period, which followed, the sculpture depicted the martyrdom and downcast souls of the people of the dark ages.

During the Renaissance which is the classic period of sculpture, Mr. Swartz said, the period turned to the ostentations.

WELFARE SECTION TO CONSIDER MANY SUBJECTS
The Public Welfare Section meets Wednesday, November 19,

11 a.m. Mrs. R. O. Caukin, chairman of Industrial Relations, will conduct a Round Table discussion on unemployment.

Mrs. E. T. Pierce will speak on the desirability of establishing Federal employment bureaus in connection with State Bureaus. The section will begin the study of the administration of Los Angeles County taxes, outdoor relief, hospitalization, and allied subjects.

An outline creating the foundation for this study will be presented by Mrs. W. J. Lawless.

This is the first meeting of this section on its regular schedule. All members are cordially invited to attend as these subjects are of vital importance. Coffee will be served.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ELECTS NEW MEMBERS
New members elected at a meeting of the board of directors were: Mrs. R. O. Caukins, Mrs. Florence Ware and Mrs. John G. James. Mrs. James Dewey was extended a complimentary membership for this year in recognition of the lovely painting by Mr. Dewey which was a gift to the Woman's Club.

Mrs. John Osgood was empowered to buy flowers and shrubs to further beautify the club grounds.

The resignation of Mrs. Fletcher White as chairman of the International Relations committee was accepted with regret.

Mrs. John H. Robertson represented the Sierra Madre Woman's club at the Federation District card party held at Monrovia. Don't forget the Junior Dance November 22, 8 p.m., at the club house. Harlow Browns orchestra has been engaged, and a delightful evening is planned.

PLEA FOR PEACE AT ARMISTICE CELEBRATION
An Armistice Day program for the "Advancement of Education for Peace" was held last evening at the Woman's Club.

R. E. Chadwick, president of the Los Angeles Municipal League, represented the "Association for the Study of the Cause and Cure of War."

Harold D. Carew read "The Little French Cafe," "When Bill Went West," and "The Gate of Last Good-bye." These poems were written by him in France at the time of the war. "The Gate of Last Good-bye" is symbolic of the gate at the Charing Cross Station in London, England, where soldiers departed for the front. His later poems "A Hymn for Peace" and "Invocation" written in Sierra Madre, were also read. Oscar Rasbach has composed music for "A Hymn for Peace" and "Invocation."

FRIENDSHIP CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Friendship Club of the Congregational Church met last Monday evening in the church parlors to elect their officers for the coming year. Mrs. W. O. Fire Flames

By one of the boys

ONE reading this column occasionally might suspect that the activities of the members of the fire department were never serious. The fact is, that the boys are entirely too solemnly engaged in fire department work to aid much in this attempt at humor. We do have a great deal of pleasure at our practices and meetings, but this only helps to keep a good membership and a keen interest in the work.

Our chief is chosen from our membership and elected by the members of the department. An election is held annually and nominations are open for each office from chief to secretary. (Chief Richards has held the office of chief for a number of years and is very popular among the boys as well as among other fire departments of the state.)

In order to retain the interest and sustain the harmonious behavior that is so essential to a volunteer fire department, the new members are chosen and elected by the members. Our waiting list is open to any citizen of Sierra Madre who is not employed out of the city limits. There are already a large number of names on this list and as is customary the name that receives the largest number of votes is elected to membership.

The conduct of our business meetings is of a nature that eliminates strict formality and allows a lead of good humor that breaks the monotony, which the writer suggests would be a good example for any lodge or gathering to follow. It doesn't make much difference how long or dignified a fellow's face may appear (or he tries to appear) if we stay with him a sufficient length of time, we will eventually learn that he is only a boy, the same as the rest of us.

Well, anyway, as George Norris says, "Sierra Madre has the best volunteer fire department in California." We as brother members "acquiesce" with his broad statement. Perhaps other folks may not think so. We sure do, don't we George? At least we get along, even if we do disagree now and then.

Three weeks have passed since our last meeting. No wonder some of us wear a frown. Without an exaggeration, a visit to a fireman's meeting is a sure cure for any ill from "Blues" to "a pink tooth brush" and to wait three weeks for a meeting is almost sure to create an epidemic of chronic grouch among us.

Sierra Madre's Jail Pronounced Model By Grand Juryman

Additional laurels for Sierra Madre were gained last Saturday when D. F. Stafford, foreman of the Los Angeles County Grand jury, made an official inspection of the local jail and characterized it as "the cleanest jail I have seen in Los Angeles County, if not in California."

Good Prospect For Huge 1930 Citrus Crop Says Expert

The confidence of the fresh fruit trade in the United States in the stability of the orange market coupled with increased consumer demand for California citrus were given as the two principal factors in the outstanding citrus sales record for the year of 1929-30, by Paul S. Armstrong, assistant general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, on his return from the yearly survey of United States markets.

"In the face of lowered buying power throughout the country and the heavy supplies of other fruits selling at low prices, the record made this year by California citrus growers has been remarkable," stated Mr. Armstrong. "Jobbers and the trade generally informed me that they considered citrus fruits in a class by themselves and that they have confidence in the market due to the careful distribution plans of the Exchange. The public demand oranges because they know through the medium of Sunkist advertising of their necessary health qualities and the deliciousness of the fruit itself."

"With the larger crop next year promised from citrus producing areas, we will have a much more difficult marketing task," continued Mr. Armstrong. "I believe, however, that Exchange members and other California growers can look to the 1930-31 season with confidence if the distribution of the California crop continues to be handled in a sound manner as of the past so as to keep the confidence of the trade that we now have in the stability of the market on California citrus. This can be accomplished even better with 100 percent cooperation within the industry itself."

EL MONTE'S WOMEN GO AFTER TITLE OF THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Seeking to have El Monte known as "the" city beautiful of the San Gabriel Valley and Southern California, the Woman's Club there has started a campaign to have every vacant lot and parking planted with California wild flower seed.

It has called on the city council, chamber of commerce, Business and Professional Women's club, Parent-Teachers' association, Lions Club and other organizations to cooperate, pointing out that wild flower seed planted during the month of November will produce masses of beautiful bloom during the spring, that will not only be a joy to the residents of El Monte, but also a sight to be enjoyed by visitors.

Unpleasant notoriety it received because of Gordon Northcutt's crimes caused the people of Wineville to petition the postoffice department for a new name. Mira Loma is the name assigned. The railroad accepted and put the Spanish name over the village station. The original name was given the place when it was the location of one of California's largest and best known wineries.

SOME TIMELY SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOME GARDENER

NOVEMBER is one of the big planting months of the year. We usually have had some rain by now to help in the planting but water from the hose-pipe will do wonders as a substitute for rain and if you should put off all your planting operations to wait for the rain, you will just be out of luck, for it will be too late.

Shrubby or rose bushes moved now from one part of the garden to another must be "balled" out of the ground—that is, dug with a ball of dirt adhering to the roots and carefully wrapped in burlap before lifting.

When replanting, bury the burlap, too, for if you try to remove it, it may cause the ball of dirt to crack. The secret of successful "balling" is to keep the ball of soil from cracking away from the roots. All plants that are established in pots, cans and boxes will transplant perfectly now.

Deciduous fruit trees can be pruned as soon as the leaves have fallen but do not prune deciduous shrubs that are to bloom next spring or you will cut away much of their blossoming wood.

All shrubs that have bloomed this summer or fall should be pruned now to shape them up.

Roses can be pruned now but it would be better to wait until January so that they can bloom as much as possible before they go dormant.

Heavy winds may come at this season of the year. It is well to put larger stakes at your young avocado trees for the wood is brittle and a heavy wind can snap them off.

Chrysanthemum plants that have bloomed may be taken up and "heeled" in some out-of-the-way place until March and the ground used for some annual.

November is a splendid month to sow new lawns. Bermuda grass or "devil" grass is it is justly called, is now going dormant and the seed will not grow until late spring. If you can get a good stand of grass, especially Washington Bent Grass, before that, the seed will not have much of a chance to germinate. Of course all of the old roots that are left in the soil will come to life in the spring and play a lot of mischief in the lawn so they must be gotten out before the new lawn is sown.

Old lawns can be renovated and made to look green through the winter by going over them with a special rake made for the purpose and then sowing clover and blue grass seed and covering the whole with a mulch of screened manure.

Rake up leaves and save them for a mulch under your fruit trees or to dig into the ground around roses.

Avocado trees should especially be provided with a deep mulch of leaves.

Fertilize violets now and see that they have plenty of water. They are preparing now to bloom.

New Traffic Plan Divides Travelers Into Three Classes

Important changes in passenger business are foreseen in the announcement by James B. Duffy, assistant passenger traffic manager, that the Santa Fe, for the purpose of stimulating travel between California, Missouri River points and Chicago has decided to experiment with three classes of passenger fares for a period of six months, commencing January 1st.

The plan definitely separates rail travel into three classes or groups—standard, tourist and coach—and establishes a sliding scale of rates in proportion to the service desired, as follows:

Tickets at existing fares will be good in standard sleeping cars on all trains. One way tourist fares, offering a reduction of about 20 per cent, will be good in tourist sleeping cars but not in standard sleeping cars. One way coach fares, to be offered at a reduction of about 20 per cent under tourist fares, will be good in coaches and chair cars.

Fares from San Francisco, Los Angeles or San Diego to Chicago offer an illustration of the new plan. The standard fare is $79.84, the tourist $65.00 and the coach $50.

USE AND VARIETIES OF TALL HEDGE PLANTS

NOW for tall hedges used for screening out unsightly views or for windbreaks. Monterey Cypress should be first in this list. It makes a dense quick-growing hedge and is inexpensive to purchase. They should be pruned if a medium sized hedge is desired and if for a tall hedge or windbreak, just let them grow natural.

Eugenia with its reddish new growth and green glossy leaves is an unusually handsome shrub. It is quick growing also and can be either trimmed into a compact medium sized hedge or grown natural into a tall screen. The berries which cover the plant in the fall are quite pretty too. One variety has red berries and another one has purple berries.

Letospermum or Australian Tea Tree is most useful for a draught resistant hedge. If grown naturally it will make a wide, weeping hedge about 15 feet high. The foliage is grey-green and the flowers are white. If pruned, the Letospermum will make a neat compact hedge about six feet high.

Hibiscus, a tall gorgeous hedge, should have plenty of moisture and sunshine. Like the lantanas, it thrives on heat. The single scarlet is the most striking and hardy one of them all. However, the double pink, double red, and single yellow are all beautiful varieties.

Pittosporum Undulatum will make a dense, dark green hedge quickly. It always makes a large hedge. The blossoms are cream colored and very fragrant.

Cotoneaster Panosa as a hedge, resembles the Letospermum hedge and is covered with red, holly-like berries all winter, but it will not stand the draught that the Letospermum will.

Genista Fragrans is sometimes used as a hedge where there is plenty of room. It spreads out into quite a wide hedge on account of its weeping and spreading growth. In the spring, it is a mass of bright yellow flowers.

SEASONAL REMINDERS FOR HOME GARDENERS

Be sure to keep the newly planted sweet peas cool until the seeds have sprouted. Shade the row with tree branches or weeds.

Sow the seed of annual Larkspur where the plants are to remain. They should not be transplanted.

Radishes, onions, and carrots are an all-winter crop in most Pacific Coast climates.

Wild flower seed scattered over the vacant lot or in the parking now means color and beauty in the Spring.
